

Fred. Gressel

Star Printer

Frederick Gressel, 67, who had worked as a pressman for The Star for six years until illness caused his retirement, died on Tuesday morning after an illness of several months, at his home, 227 Franklin street, Hackettstown.

A native of New York City, he had been a printer for 50 years, and a resident of Hackettstown for the past 15 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Frances Gressel, and a sister, Miss Margaret Gressler.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Friday) with a high requiem mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Hackettstown, at 9 a. m.

The Star: 13 July 1950

NAME: Frederick Gressel

DATE OF DEATH: ~~13 July, 1950~~