

Eleanor Griffith

Eleanor H. Griffith, 79, of Long Valley, died at Northwest Covenant Medical Center, Dover.

Born Eleanor Hoppler in the village of Naughtright, Washington Township, she lived all her life in Washington Township.

She was an officer of the former Hunterdon County Trust Co., Califon, retiring many years ago. She was a member of the Zion Lutheran Church, Long Valley, where she served as former treasurer; a member of the D.A.R. and treasurer of the Morristown D.A.R. District; a trustee and treasurer of German Valley Rural Cemetery Association, Long Valley; a charter member and first secretary of the Washington Township Historical Society; member of the N.J. Geneological Society and a member of the Golden Age Group of Washington Township.

Her husband, Robert Griffith, died in 1987.

She is survived by two cousins, Charles Hicks of Kenil and Raymond Griffith of Chester.

Burial was in Hanover Cemetery, Hanover. Arrangements were by Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

Memorial donations may be made to the Long Valley First Aid, Rt. 24, Long Valley, N.J. 07853.

Star Gazette
January 4, 1996
Eleanor Griffith
Date of Death
December, 1995