

Joseph Grimm

MT. BETHEL — Joseph C. Grimm, 89, of Mt. Bethel died Monday at home after a short illness. DIED 6-10

Born in northern New Jersey, he resided in Springfield prior to moving to Mt. Bethel in 1960.

He was a retired auto mechanic and former owner of Joe Grimm's Garage in Springfield.

He was a member of the Mt. Bethel United Methodist Church. He was a charter member and former chief of the Mt. Bethel Volunteer Fire Co., and a member of the Warren County Firemen's Association and the Colchester Senior Citizens Association of Downsville, N.Y.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy Moore; three daughters, June Defino of Springfield, Marjorie MacKinzie of Oxford and Gladys H. Faust of Plainville, Conn.; two step-daughters, Dolores A. Hermansen of Creamridge and Janet Heiser of Oxford; one stepson, John L. Moore of New Oxford, Pa.; seven grandchildren, five step-grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren and seven step-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Scala Memorial Home, Hackettstown.

Interment will be in Mt. Bethel Methodist Cemetery, Mt. Bethel.

Daily Advance
June 12, 1985

OBITUARY:
Joseph C. Grimm
Date of death,
June 10, 1985

Joseph C. Grimm, former Mount Bethel fire chief

MANSFIELD TWP — Joseph C. Grimm of Mount Bethel, a former fire chief, died Monday at home after a short illness. He was 89.

He was born in Newark and lived in Springfield before moving to Mount Bethel in 1960.

Mr. Grimm was a retired auto mechanic and former owner of Joe Grimm's Garage of Springfield.

He was a former fire chief and charter member of the Mount Bethel Volunteer Fire Co. He was a member of the Warren County Fireman's Association, the Mount Bethel United Methodist Church and the Colchester Senior Citizens Association of Downsville, N.Y.

Survived are his wife Dorothy Moore; three daughters, June Defino, Springfield, Marjorie MacKinzie, Oxford, and Gladys H. Faust, Plainville, Conn.; a stepson, John L. Moore, New Oxford, Pa.; two stepdaughters, Dolores Hermansen, Cream Ridge, and Janet Heiser, Oxford; seven grandchildren; five stepgrandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and seven stepgreat-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High St., Hackettstown.

Cat. No. 13549.16.12

Daily Record
June 12, 1985

OBITUARY:
Joseph C. Grimm
Date of death,
June 10, 1985