

OBITUARY

Sandra Ann Groh (née Starke), 82, peacefully passed away at Florida Memorial Hospital - Flagler surrounded by her family on March 1, 2018.

She was born on May 7, 1935 in Montclair, New Jersey and spent her childhood in West Orange, New Jersey. Sandra also known to many as Sandy was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great grandmother. Sandy was an amazing fighter as she was a breast cancer survivor. Sandy was a registered nurse for many years at Hackettstown Hospital in Hackettstown, New Jersey before retiring and moving to Flagler Beach, Florida.

She was known to all in the family as the ògo toò person for all health related questions. She had a passion for helping everyone she could in anyway she could. Anyone that had the privilege of meeting and being around Sandy felt her warmth and love. She was a devoted Lutheran and enjoyed bringing her children and grandchildren to church each Sunday. She had an adventurous soul that loved to travel.

She enjoyed spending her time doing crafts, working on puzzles, and taking pictures of all things. She was always the person to capture all memories while doing anything with her family and friends. She had an infectious smile and outgoing personality. She had a passion for reading, watching sports, needlework, and playing cards. There was never a dull moment while you were in the presence of Sandy.

She is survived by her devoted and loving husband Philip R. Groh; her sons Philip R. Groh, Jr. (wife Peggy Groh), Ronald Groh (partner Anna Smith), daughter Kathryn Mary Groh (husband John Pascale), and her loving fur-baby, Fritz; granddaughters Christina Dean (husband Shannon Dean), Erica Tomas (husband Tomas Tomas), Jenna Russ, Dustin Groh, Jennifer Groh, Sarah Groh, and Cody Sanford; twelve great grandchildren; one great-great grandson; and brother William Starke (wife Carlene Starke).

She is predeceased by her brother Charles Starke, grandson Ronald Groh, Jr., her parents and many other family members and friends.

A memorial service will be held at Plantation Oaks Community Clubhouse on March 4, 2018 at 4 PM where the family welcomes all that knew Sandy.

Memorials may be made to Shepherd of the Coast Lutheran Church, 101 Pine Lakes Parkway, Palm Coast, Florida 32164.
