

PAUL GUENTHER
HACKETTSTOWN

Funeral services were held Friday for Paul Guenther, 87, of Thomas Drive, who died March 16 at Hackettstown Community Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Thalheim, Germany, he came to the U.S. in 1912.

He was a retired foreman for the former Gotham Hosiery Company of Dover. One of the founders of Germania Park in Dover, Mr. Guenther was an outdoorsman who loved hunting and fishing.

He is survived by his brother, Max, of North Haledon; several nephews and nieces and several grand-nephews and grand-nieces.

Services were in the Tuttle Funeral Home, Dover.

Interment was in Locust Hill Cemetery, Dover.

From;

Star-Gazette, March 24, 1977

Paul Guenther,

Date of Death, March 16, 1977