

OBITUARY

Lauretta P. Gulick, noted local artist

Lauretta P. Gulick, 94, of Washington Street in Hackettstown, died Friday in Hackettstown Community Hospital after a long illness.

A well-known local landscape and still-life artist who produced many oil paintings, she was employed for many years as a bookkeeper by Kass Furniture Store in Hackettstown until she retired. Prior to that, she worked as a bookkeeper at Prudential Insurance Co. in Newark and Williams & Hibler Lumber in Hackettstown.

Born Oct. 9, 1895, in Washington Township in Morris County, she was a daughter of the late Charles A.S. and Emma Ackley Gulick. She lived in the Hackettstown area all her life.

She was a member of the Beattystown Presbyterian Church, where she was a charter member of the Women's Guild, and the Independence Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star of Hackettstown.

Surviving are a sister, Mable Adams, with whom she lived, and many nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday in the Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown. Interment will be in the Union Cemetery in Hackettstown.
