

WILLIAM GULICK

On the 16th ult, at the resident of his uncle, Elijah Little, Arlington, Ill., William, son of Joseph and Fanny Gulick of Newark, N.J., formerly of this place, aged 14 years=

How soon, far away from home, is the bud of life thou art called from earth to join a dear grandmother and aunt, who have but so recently gone to a better land, where they stand peering over the battlements of God's eternal throne, beckoning those that are left behind to get ready and come to to that place where sorrow is never known - the home circle may be broken and hearts made sad, yet the tears of the mourners can alone be wiped away by the strong hand of Him who doeth all things well.

H.

Taken from Hackettstown Gazette,

1863