

ADA GULICKHACKETTSTOWN —

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Ada Gulick, 78, of 203 East Valley View Ave., who died Saturday in the Barn Hill Nursing Home, Newton, after a long illness.

Born June 27, 1899, in Allamuchy, she was a daughter of the late George and Josephine Bartow Pool. She lived her entire life in the area.

She was employed as a cashier with the Strand Theatre, Hackettstown, and, until her retirement, in the cafeteria of Centenary College, Hackettstown.

She is survived by her husband, Raymond, and a son, Wilbur of Hackettstown.

Services were in the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown, conducted by the Rev. Charles P. Harder, visitation minister of Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown.

Interment was in the family plot in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
September 8, 1977.

Obituary,
Ada Gulick,
Date of Death, September 3, 1977.