

OBITUARY

Kenneth Haddock, 71, of Lubec, ME, formerly of Hackettstown, N.J., passed away October 31, 2013, surrounded by his loving family.

Ken treasured spending time with his family and friends including the Lubec coffee klatch and Monday Night Music. He had several interests and hobbies, a passion for cars and was a member of NHRA and NRA.

Survived by his loving wife, Nancy (Logan); children, Kenneth and his wife, Dawn, of Newton, N.J., Terrence and his wife, Jenna, of Temple, Texas, and Sherry Anne and her husband, Gregory Chang, of Wilmington, Del.; sister, Susan Haddock; several grandchildren; and one great-grandson.

Ken was an industrial electrician for Hoffman LaRoche for over 30 years before retiring to Lubec.

Family and friends are welcome to join in a celebration of Ken's life which will be held 2 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 5, at Lubec American Legion Hall. Donations may be made in Ken's honor to American Diabetes Association at diabetes.org or mailed to American Diabetes Association, P.O. Box 11454, Alexandria, VA. 22312 or by phone 1-800-342-2383. Condolences and memories may be shared at www.mcclurefamilyfuneral.com.

Published in BDN Maine: November 4, 2013

NAME: Haddock, Kenneth

DATE OF DEATH: October 31, 2013