

Mabel R. Haff,
native of Canada

Mabel R. Haff, 99, of the House of Good Shepherd in Hackettstown, died Sunday, Sept. 8, in the House of Good Shepherd.

She worked in the admitting office of Southside Hospital in Bayshore, Long Island, N.Y., retiring many years ago.

Born May 26, 1897, in Gaylordsville, Canada, she was a son of the late William J. and Emily Buckingham Haff. She resided in the House of Good Shepherd since 1986.

She was a member of the Trinity United Methodist Church in Hackettstown.

She was a member of the Woman's Club of Hackettstown.

Her husband, Warren C., died earlier.

She is survived by two daughters, Joan Clark of Burlington, Ontario, Canada, and Marjorie Pridmore of Washington.

A memorial service will be announced by the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown. There will be no calling hours.

Burial will be private.

Easton Express Times
September 9, 1996
Mabel R. Haff
Date of Death
September 8, 1996