

H. Haggerty

Services were held Tuesday in the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown, for Helen M. Haggerty, 69, of Washington Township, who died Saturday at Warren Hospital, Phillipsburg, after a long illness.

Born in Hackettstown, she lived most of her life in the Hackettstown area. Mrs. Haggerty was a retired police matron and worked for the Hackettstown Police Department for 17 years. She was a member of the Hackettstown Women of the Moose.

Surviving are her husband, Herb; five sons, Herbert of Johnsonburg, Jack of White Swan, Wash., David of Great Meadows, Gary of Hackettstown, and Danny of Washington Township; two daughters, Elizabeth Strowbridge of Hope, and Gail, at home; a brother, Robert Smith of Hackettstown; five sisters, Lillian Pierson, Beatrice Smith and Evelyn Decker, all of Hackettstown and Anna Tauge and Marge Syphor, both of Newton; 31 grandchildren; and 18 great-grandchildren.

Interment was in Pleasant Grove Cemetery, Schooley's Mountain.

+ The Forum,
December 23, 1981.

OBITUARY:
Helen M. Haggerty.
Date of Death,
December 19, 1981.