

OBITUARY

Charles P. Hairhouse.

Death came suddenly last Sunday to Charles P. Hairhouse, at his home on South Parkway, East Orange. For many years Mr. Hairhouse has been a successful salesman in Newark. He left Hackettstown in the early seventies as a bank clerk, but soon after chose the occupation of a salesman. His father was the late Charles Hairhouse, one of the pioneer jewelers of Hackettstown for more than half a century. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Maud Gates. His only surviving sister is Mrs. George W. Smith of Moore street. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the First Baptist Peddie Memorial Church. Interment in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

The Hackettstown Gazette: January 2, 1920

NAME: Charles P. Hairhouse

DATE OF DEATH: December 28, 1920