Genevieve Crane Hall

FLORIDA — Genevieve Crane Hall died on June 9 at the Plaza West Nursing Home in Sun City Center, Fla.

She was born July 9, 1899, and lived in Hackettstown until moving to Sun City Center in 1973. There she and her husband were charter members of the Calusa Golf Club.

Her husband died in January, 1994.

After attending Wheaton College, Mrs. Hall opened a hat shop in the Clarendon Hotel. When gifts and apparel were added, the Genevieve Shop moved to the present location of the Jigger Shop. The business was sold in 1938.

She was on the founding board of the Hackettstown Recreation Center, and was an active member of the Women's Club Evening Group and the First Presbyterian Church.

She is survived by three nieces, Mary Ellen Bailey, Antois, Calif.; Linda Linhares, Cape May; and Frances Duncan, Hackettstown; three nephews, Theodore Zellars, Allamuchy; John Whitfield, Salisbury, N.C.; and Robert Whitfield, Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. Elwin C. Hall

Dr. Elwin C. Hall, 96, of Sun City Center, Fla., died Jan. 5 at South Bay Hospital.

Born in Warren County, Dr. Hall operated a medical practice in Hackettstown for several years before moving to Florida in 1972.

He was a member of St. Andrew Presbyterian Church in Florida.

Survivors include his wife, Genevieve; and one nephew, William Hall of Minnesota.

Services were held at St. Andrew Presbyterian Church on Jan. 13, with Dr. Franklin S. Nauman, associate pastor, officiating.

Arrangements were under the direction of Lewers Funeral Home in Ruskin, Fla.
