

Minnie L. Hand

Minnie L. Hand, 93, of Florida, died Aug. 4 at University Health-care and Rehabilitation Center East.

She was born in Catskill, N.Y., and moved to Deland, Fla., in 1991 from Boonton. Prior to that she had lived in Hackettstown for 30 years.

She taught for two years in a one-room country schoolhouse in Durham, N.Y., and then attended Boston University School of Religion Education for two years.

A faithful and active member of the Methodist Church most of her life, she touched many lives. Hand was a salesperson for the World Book Encyclopedia in Massachusetts, and Real Silk Hosiery Co. in New York City.

Hand is survived by two daughters, Sarah (Iva) Bramble of Deland, and Virginia Engvall, of Worchester, Mass.; a sister, Lillian Story, of Albany, N.Y.; 11 grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Memorial donations may be sent to Hospice of Voudia/Flager, 3800 Woodbriar Trail, Port Orange, Fla. 32119.

Star Gazette
August 24, 1995
Minnie L. Hand
Date of Death
August 4, 1995