

OBITUARY.

BRIDGET HANEHAN.

Mrs. Bridget Hanehan, wife of Thomas Hanehan, died on Friday last, aged 55 years, of nervous prostration. The deceased was born in County Mayo, Ireland, and had lived in this town for thirty years, highly respected by those of her acquaintance. She had been sick since January last and was at times a great sufferer. She was a good and kind mother and could not do enough for her family, always hard at work for their comfort. She leaves her husband, two sons and married daughter to mourn her loss. The funeral sermon was preached in St. Mary's Catholic church on Sunday afternoon and the church was filled to overflowing by a large concourse of friends. The Rev. Oram's remarks were most appropriate, and were full of instruction to the living, as of tenderest tribute to the faithful life of the deceased. The burial took place in Union Cemetery.

Warren Republican: September 5, 1884

NAME: Bridget Hanehan

DATE OF DEATH: August 30, 1884