

H. Happersberg

RIDGE, N.Y. — Funeral services were held Saturday for Herbert Happersberg, 89, who died June 7 at Mather Memorial Hospital, Point Jefferson, N.Y.

Mr. Happersberg was born in Ohio and had been a resident of the Hackettstown area before moving to New York. He was a retired automotive engineer for Mack Truck, Allentown, Pa.

The World War I Army veteran was a former volunteer fireman with the Mount Bethel Fire Department, was a member of the Independence Lodge No. 42 F.&A.M. of Hackettstown and the Mansfield Gun Club, a former president of the Wheatley Hills Golf Club on Long Island and a former vice president of the Society of Automotive Engineers.

Mr. Happersberg is survived by his wife, Aida E. and two sisters, Paula Happersberg and Emeline H. Watts.

Arrangements were handled by the Leo F. Kerns Funeral Home, Rego Park, N.Y.

Star-Gazette,

June 15, 1978.

OBITUARY: Herbert Happersberg.

Date of Death, June 7, 1978