

OBITUARY

Darren Michael Harm, 22, died May 7, 2010 in his home. Darren lived in Hackettstown coming from Mansfield Township 15 years ago. Born: in Hackettstown, NJ on July 5, 1987, he was a son of Barry and Nancy Lepre Harm. Personal: He was a Maintenance Mechanic for Mansfield Village Apartments in Mansfield Township. Darren graduated from West Morris Central and Morris County Votech in 2005 with degrees in engine repair, heat and air conditioning. He also attended a wrestling school and worked at Ultimate Fitness in Florham Park, NJ in 2008. Darren specialized in welding, and worked on anything he could get in his garage; engines, bikes, quads, cars and trucks. Also a talented artist, he had a large collection of bike & tattoo ideas. He was also a drummer in a band with his brother, Barry. Every year, his family would go on vacation to Cape May, NJ and have a wonderful time. Darren was also in the process of making a patent for a tool that he invented to assist in the garage. His interests were many, including trying out for the IWF Federation, riding his quad and body building. He was always making his protein shakes and working out with his friends, Wes, Zach and Steve. Darren helped us build the families home since he was a young boy. He recently helped build a tiki bar in the back yard, his family and friends and loving girlfriend, Kristina Stiles would all come over to hang out and party! Leo, Joe McDonald, Zach Erling, Josh Frone, Dave Shoen, Brittany Dodd, Jill Ruballos, Adam Lance, Wes Staples, Jessica Lanzara, Stephenie Kimble, Kim Janda and so many women in his company-Go Darren! He was one of a kind, a great friend and such a talented and unique person. His laugh, fullness of life attitude would brighten anyone's day! My little "dare pain", handsome man and loving son and brother. He will always be loved and in our hearts cherished memories forever, we love you Darren.
