

OBITUARY

CHARLES W. HART

of 6 Whittier Place, Boston, Mass., a former Hackettstown resident, died in his 77th year at Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, on Saturday, May 15, 1971. He had been ill since December.

Mr. Hart was a son of the late James and Rebecca Weller Hart and was born in Greenwich Township, Warren County, on May 13, 1895. He moved seven months ago from Hackettstown to Boston.

He was employed by the General Public Utilities Corp. of New York until several years ago. His wife was the former Daisy May Fulmer, who died May 6, 1959.

He was of the Methodist faith and belonged to the Trinity United Church, Hackettstown, while a resident here.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Charlotte L. Barbier of Plainfield, Mrs. Patricia A. Muro of Veazie, Maine, Mrs. Kathleen M. Lance of Bedminster, and Miss Louise E. Hart of Boston; two brothers, Elmer of Hackettstown and Raymond of Phillipsburg; a sister, Mrs. Laura Herstine of Phillipsburg, and three grandchildren.

The Rev. Andrew O'Sullivan of St. Paul's Abbey, Newton, will officiate at the services at 1 o'clock today (Thursday) from the Metzler Funeral Home, 124 High Street, Hackettstown. Interment will follow in the Stewartsville Lutheran Cemetery.

The Star: 20 May, 1971

NAME: Charles W. Hart.

DATE OF DEATH: 15 May, 1971