Lillian F. Hart

HACKETTSTOWN — Lillian F. Hart, 98, died Monday morning, Jan. 5, 2004, in the House of Good Shepherd in Hackettstown.

Born on March 17, 1905, in Hackettstown, she was a daughter of the late Dennis J. Ryan and Jennie Riedinger. She was the oldest of nine children.

Her husband, Reginald, died on Aug. 26, 1966.

Lillian was the second oldest resident in Hackettstown after Mrs. Blessing, who had passed away recently.

She retired in 1970 after 10 years of service as a housekeeper for Centenary College in Hackettstown.

She was a member of St. James Episcopal Church in Hackettstown.

She was also a member of Blue Ridge Post No. 164 Ladies Auxiliary and a life member of the Hackettstown Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary.

She is survived by a daughter, Geraldine Emmons, with whom she resided; a daughter-in-law, Gloria Hart of Hackettstown; two grandchildren, Rebecca Wisser and Richard R. Hart and two great-grandchildren.

A son, Richard, died on Dec. 14, 1977. She was also predeceased by five brothers, Joseph, Gerald, Lewis, Dennis and Jack Ryan, and three sisters, Mary Savoia, Grace Ryan and Ruth Sharp.

Services were by the Rev. Dr. Kathy Deats. Arrangements were by the Scala Memorial Home, Hackettstown. Burial was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery in Hackettstown.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the church's building fund.
