

OBITUARY

Marvin Hart

HACKETTSTOWN — Marvin Hart, 72, died Wednesday, June 10.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., he lived there until 1970 before moving to Lake Hiawatha and then to Hackettstown.

He was a businessman and entrepreneur in New York.

He served in the Army Air Corps during World War II.

His stepson, Martin Webb, died in 1988.

He is survived by his wife, Sandy; two daughters, Susan Zwickel of Mount Arlington and Margo Langley of Huntington Beach, Calif.; one stepson, Chip Webb of Seala, Ala.; nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services were held at Boulevard Riverside Chapel, Brooklyn, N.Y.

---

The Star-Gazette: June 18, 1998

NAME: Marvin Hart

DATE OF DEATH: June 10, 1998