

OBITUARY

MRS. BELLE HARTMAN DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Mrs. Belle Hartman, widow of Aaron Hartman, passed away on Thursday at the home of her son, Harry Hartman, 125 Valentine street, after an illness of ten days.

Mrs. Hartman was seventy-one years old and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

She is survived by her son, at whose home she passed on; one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Nichols, of Wharton; five brothers, George and Frank of Genoa, Illinois; Wesley of Phillipsburg; Freeman of Dover, and Newton Hoffman of Fairmount; one sister, Mrs. Thomas Johnson, of Sharp street, Hackettstown.

Funeral services will be held on Monday at 2 o'clock p. m., at her son's home.

The Rev. J. K. Easley, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate. Interment in Union Cemetery.

—O—

The Hackettstown Gazette: September 27, 1935

NAME: Belle Hartman

DATE OF DEATH: September 26, 1935