

OBITUARY

HARRY HARTMAN

HACKETTSTOWN — Harry Hartman, 77, of 122 Valentine St., Hackettstown, died Sunday in the Trenton State Hospital.

Born Jan. 26, 1890, in Hackettstown, a son of the late Aaron and Arabella Hoffman Hartman, he was a lifelong resident of Hackettstown.

Mr. Hartman retired 12 years ago as a utility serviceman from the New Jersey Power & Light Co.

He was a member of Trinity Methodist Church.

Survivors include his widow, the former Norma Petty; a son, Harry E., Hackettstown; two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Ball, Hackettstown, and Mrs. Doris McClary, Kenvil, a sister, Mrs. Mamie Nichols, Dover, seven grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) at the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown.

The Washington Star: March 23, 1967

NAME: Harry Hartman

DATE OF DEATH: March 19, 1967