

Former school nurse dies

CLEARWATER, FLA. —

Funeral services were held Oct. 19 for Mrs. Helen S. Hartman, 61, of 1513 King's Highway, who died Oct. 16 at Mease Hospital, Dunedin, Fla.

Born in Washington, she lived at 516 Monroe St., Hackettstown, for many years. She was a 1935 graduate of the Jersey City Medical Center and was a public school nurse in Warren County for 17 years. She moved to Florida in 1970.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Dunedin, was past vice president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown, and past vice president of the Warren County Nurse's Association.

Survivors include her husband, Rolland C. Hartman, whom she married in 1936; two daughters, Mrs. Douglas Van Dyke of Bath, N.Y., and Mrs. Robert White of Houston, Texas; one brother, Jack Schamp of Las Vegas, Nev.; four sisters, Mrs. Margaret Fish and Mrs. Elinor Bowman of Washington, Mrs. Muriel Wolfe of Bernardsville and Mrs. Betty Devonald of Bridgeton.

Helen S. Hartman

Services were in the Moss Denedin Chapel, Dunedin, conducted by the Rev. Allan R. Stuart of the First United Methodist Church of Denedin.

Interment was at Sylvan Abbey Memorial Park, Pinellas County, Fla.

Star-Gazette,
October 22, 1977.

OBituary:
Helen S. Hartman,
Date of Death, October 16, 1977.