

Jennie M. Hartman

DOVER — Jennie M. Hartman died Saturday, Sept. 9, 2006, in Compassionate Care Hospice at St. Clare's, Dover. She was 87.

Born Jan. 13, 1919 in Oxford, she was a daughter of the late Adam and Bertha Zoldack Niechwiadowicz.

Jennie lived in Hackettstown all her life. She co-owned the Swing Shop, a music and toy store in Hackettstown, in the 1950s. She was employed as a waitress at Webers, Walnut Grove and lastly, Cliffdale's Restaurant, both of the greater Hackettstown area.

She attended Hackettstown High School and was a member of the Class of 1938. She was dedicated to her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren her whole life.

She was a member of St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church in Oxford. She was also a 50 year member of the Order of the Eastern Star Chapter #136, Washington, and a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hackettstown Fire Department.

She is survived by two sons, Robert E. and Harry A. Hartman, both of Hackettstown; a brother, Edward Niechwiadowicz, of Bethlehem; two sisters, Helen Muller, of Hazlet, and Mary Haycock, of Oxford; four grandchildren, Scott A. Hartman, in Minnesota, Kim Guthrie, in Massachusetts, Robert Hartman, Jr., in Georgia, and Danelle Hartman, of Hackettstown; seven great-grandchildren, Candace, Lacie, Krysti, Marissa, Alex, BrookLynn, and A.J.; many loving nieces and nephews.

Services were in the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown. Burial was in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows. Online condolences may be sent to www.cochranfuneral.com.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to your local A.R.C. charity.
