

OBITUARY

Walter S. Harvey

Walter S. Harvey, of Tunkhannock, Pa., formerly of Hackettstown, died April 6, at Carpenter Care Center, Tunkhannock, Pa. He was 88.

Born in Dimock, Susquehanna County, Pa., he was a son of the late Samuel and Mary Edwards Harvey.

He was a crane operator at L.L. Koven in Dover, before retiring.

He served in the Navy during World War II.

He was a life member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 282 in Hackettstown.

His wife, the former Dorothy R. Grow, died earlier.

He is survived by a son, Walter

C. Harvey of Sugar Run, Pa.; three daughters, Mary Lou Gibbs of Phillipsburg, Marilyn Morgan of Netcong, and Bernice Hutchinson of Bethel, Maine; a brother, Eben of Tunkhannock; 15 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

A son, Lennard Harvey; two brothers, Martin and James Harvey; and a sister, Bernice Cronk, died earlier.

Services were held April 9, at the Sheldon-Kukuchka Funeral Home, Tunkhannock, Pa.

Burial was in Lynn Cemetery, Lynn, Pa.

The Star-Gazette: April 18, 2002

NAME: Harvey, Walter S.

DATE OF DEATH: April 6, 2002