

OBITUARY

ANDREW HAZELTON

WAYNE TWP. — Andrew Hazelton, formerly of Hackettstown, died Sept. 23. He was 67.

He was born in Morristown and grew up in Hackettstown. He lived in Wayne since 1956.

Mr. Hazelton retired in 1987 from Western Union, where he was assistant vice president of internal audit. He previously worked as a certified public accountant for Touche-Ross and Co. in New York City and was controller for Curtiss-Wright Corp., Butler International and Western Union Teleprocessing.

He was a graduate of Rider College and served as president of its alumni association. He was named outstanding alumnus of the year. He also served on the Rider College Board of Trustees.

A Navy veteran of World War II and the Korean War, he retired as a commander, Supply Corps, United States Naval Reserve.

He was a member of St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Wayne, where he served many years on its vestry and was treasurer for 20 years. He was former treasurer of the Department of Missions, Episcopal Diocese of Newark, and treasurer of the Synod of the Second Province.

Since retiring he was a volunteer at Wayne General Hospital and a storyteller for the hospital's day care center.

A sister, Arvilla Walter, died previously.

Survivors include his wife, the former Carolyn Willard; a son, Drew W. of Bethlehem, N.Y.; a daughter, Barbara S. DeBoer of Mansfield Township; a brother, Wesley, and a sister, Averill, both of Hackettstown; and four grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the American Heart Association, American Diabetes Association or St. Michael's Episcopal Church.

Arrangements are private.

The Star-Gazette: October 1, 1992

NAME: Andrew Hazelton

DATE OF DEATH: September 23, 1992