

OBITUARY

Mrs. Belle Heath, of 137 Main St. Hackettstown, widow of Alexander Heath, died in her 90th year on Tuesday, November 11, 1958, at her home after a long illness. She was a lifelong resident of this place.

Born on June 2, 1869, in Bridgeville (N.T), Mrs. Heath was a daughter of the late Alfred and Elizabeth Willever Johnson. She was a member of the Trinity Methodist Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. William Cronin, Mrs. George Engroff and Mrs. Harry Kay, all of Town-, I I grandchildren, 26 great grandchildren and 10 great great grandchildren. Mr. Heath died 30 years ago.

The Rev. Frank T. Reed will officiate at the funeral 2 o'clock Friday afternoon from the Cochran Funeral Home. She will be buried III Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Stewart Woolever notes:

The home address is the same as Mary Jane Woolever Nolans was, Mary Jane was the sister of Elizabeth Willever Johnson.
a/k/a Sarah Belle Johnson

The Hackettstown Gazette: November 13, 1958

NAME: Heath, Belle (nee Johnson)

DATE OF DEATH: November 11, 1958