

Dr. Clyde Cole Henry

Services were held Feb. 16 for Dr. Clyde Cole Henry, 78, of Amarillo, Texas, who died at his home Feb. 13.

Dr. Henry was born in Hacketts-town. He had lived in Amarillo for the past 15 years, retiring in 1981 from the position of radiologist at the Family Hospital Center in Amarillo.

He was a graduate of Hacketts-town High School, class of 1928; of Drew University, Madison; and the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine, class of 1943.

Dr. Henry served as director of hospital inspections for the bureau of hospitals of the American Osteopathic Association from 1956 to 1958. He was a past president of the American Osteopathic College of Radiology; and a former chairman of the education evaluation committee of the American Osteopathic College of Radiology. He was also a former member of the bureau of hospitals and the bureau of professional education and colleges of the American Osteopathic Association; and a member of the board of directors of the American Osteopathic College of Radiology. He served as radiologist at several hospitals throughout the United States.

He was of the Methodist faith, a member of the Masonic order and a Shriner.

Surviving Dr. Henry are his wife, the former Irene F. Vasilenko; two daughters, Kathy Cecord of Toledo, Ohio, and Lisa Marie Riggleman of Las Vegas, Nev.; a son, Chris Henry of Toledo, Ohio; two brothers, W. LeClare Henry and Sid Henry, both of Hackettstown; and 5 grandchildren.

Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Sharon, Pa.

Star-Gazette
March 2, 1989

OBITUARY:
Dr. Clyde Cole Henry
Date of death,
February 13, 1989