

Hollis Henry

Hollis Henry, 85, formerly of Hackettstown, died Sept. 22, at Morristown Memorial Hospital.

Born in Greenup, Ky., he was the son of the late Maude B. and Oscar H. Henry. He was predeceased in death by his wife, Ruth J. Henry in 1969 and his sister, Virginia.

Mr. Henry is survived by his daughter, Judith H. Bert, Tunkhannock, Pa., three grandchildren; four great-grandchildren and a nephew.

He was an Army veteran of World War II. He attended the Presbyterian Church of Morristown. He was the owner of O.H. Henry Company, general contractors in Hackettstown. He worked throughout New Jersey until his retirement in the early 1970s.

Burial was private. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the local chapter of the American Heart Association.

Friends and acquaintances may correspond with Judith H. Bert, 473 S.R. 92 South, Tunkhannock, Pa., 18657.

The Star-Gazette: October 1, 1998

NAME: Hollis Henry

DATE OF DEATH: September 22, 1998