

OBITUARY

John Hess, a patternmaker at the Ingersoll-Rand plant at Phillipsburg, died Monday morning at his home in that place, of typhoid fever, after an illness of two weeks. He was sixty-one years of age. He is survived by his wife and a son, Prof. Roy Hess, of Lafayette College. He was a brother-in-law to Thomas B. Howell.

The Warren Republican: January 26, 1912

NAME: Hess, John

DATE OF DEATH: January 22, 1912