

Berdie N. Hicks

Berdie N. Hicks, 73, of Saranac Lake, died Aug. 19 at Fletcher Allen Medical Center in Burlington, Vt.

Born in Hackettstown, she had been a resident of Saranac Lake for the past 10 years, and had lived most of her life in Belvidere.

She was employed at Medical Associates as a file clerk since Dec. of 1987.

She was a member of the North Country Christian Center, was very active in Girl and Boy Scouts for 25 years, and received the Scouters Award, normally reserved for men. She was a member of the United Methodist Church of Belvidere, the Belvidere Ambulance Corps. Auxiliary, and the Eastern Star. She and her husband owned Hicks Printing Company.

She is survived by her husband, of Saranac Lake; two sons, Roger Hicks, of Washington, and David Hicks, of Belvidere; two daughters, KC Mace of Chazy, and Robin Felton, of Huntington Beach, Calif.; one sister, Doris Boyd, of Hackettstown; eight grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial donations may be made to the North Country Christian Center and/or the Chazy Christian Center, Chazy, in care of the Fortune-Keough Funeral Home.

Star Gazette
September 14, 1995
Berdie Hicks
Date of Death
August 19, 1995