

Elizabeth W. Hodges

Cemetery in Dover.

Elizabeth W. Hodges, 90, of Hamstead, N.C., died July 28 at Woodberry Wellness Center, Hamstead.

Born Nov. 27, 1910 in Dover, she was a daughter to the late George P. and Violet Byrd Woods.

She lived in Morristown and Morris Township most of her life, moving to Hackettstown in 1989 and Hamstead, in 1999.

She was a school teacher for the Morris Township School System in Morris County, retiring many years ago.

She graduated from Montclair Normal School (Montclair University) in 1930.

She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church in Hackettstown and a member of the Morris County Retired Educators Association.

Her husband, Victor Hodges, died in 1994.

Survivors include a son, Ronald of Hamstead; a granddaughter, Elizabeth Snave of Wendel, N.C.; and a great-granddaughter, Ashley Snave.

Services were held at Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown.

Interment was in Locust Hill

The Star-Gazette: August 9, 2001

NAME: Elizabeth W. (Woods) Hodges

DATE OF DEATH: July 28, 2001