

Michael Holowath, ex-police chief

INDEPENDENCE TWP. — Michael Holowath, former township police chief for 34 years, died yesterday at Dover General Hospital after a long illness. He was 70.

He was born in Great Meadows and lived there all of his life.

Mr. Holowath retired from his position as police chief in 1979.

He was a township committeeman and a member of St. Nicholas Ukrainian Catholic Church in Great Meadows.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Kucharski; a son, Michael J., and a daughter, Cheryl Ann, both at home, and a grandchild.

Arrangements are by the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High St., Hackettstown.

Mary Holowath

Mary Holowath, 78, of Broadway, died March 6 at Care Center of Lopatcong after a long illness.

Born March 23, 1922 in the Alphano section of Independence Township, she was the daughter of the late Frank Kucharski and the late Tillie Demeda. She lived in Great Meadows and since 1993 in Broadway.

She retired in 1987 after 36 years as a school bus driver with Independence Township School District. She was also a farmer in Great Meadows.

She was predeceased by her husband, Michael Holowath in 1984 and also a sister, Pauline Varin of Glen Cove, L.I., N.Y.

Survivors include a son, Michael Holowath and a daughter, Cheryl Holowath, both of Great Meadows; a grandson, James A. Haynes, whom she raised at home; a brother, Joseph Kucharski of Great Meadows; and two sisters, Julia Simko of Newton and Joseph Bylicki of South Plainfield.

Arrangements were by the Scala Memorial Home, Hackettstown. After a Requiem Divine Liturgy at Saint Nicholas Ukrainian Catholic Church in Great Meadows, interment was in Pequest Union Cemetery in Great Meadows.

Daily Record
November 21, 1984

OBITUARY
Michael Holowath,
Date of Death,
November 20, 1984

Star Gazette
March 15, 2001
Mary Holowath
Date of Death
March 6, 2001 →