

OBITUARY

Elizabeth Holt

Elizabeth Holt, 77, of Hackettstown, died Dec. 2 at her residence, the House of the Good Shepherd, after a long illness.

She was born Elizabeth Weismantel in Newark, and lived in Newark and Irvington before moving to Hackettstown 10 years ago.

Mrs. Holt was employed for many years as an electronics assembler for Best Manufacturing in Irvington; and was later employed by Revlon in Irvington.

She was a former member of Evangel Baptist Church in Springfield.

Her husband, George D. Holt, died in 1977.

She is survived by a sister, Hazel Fisher of Union; three brothers, Edwin Weismantel and Arthur Weismantel, both of Whiting, and Walter Weismantel of Warren; and several nieces and nephews.

Burial was in Hollywood Memorial Park, Union.

In lieu of flowers, it is requested that memorial donations be made to the House of the Good Shepherd.

Arrangements were by the Scala Memorial Home, Hackettstown.
