

ALBERT HOPKINS
HACKETTSTOWN —

Funeral services were held Saturday for Albert Hopkins, 74, of 111 Moore St., who died Thursday at the Andover Nursing Home, Andover Township, after a long illness.

Born April 6, 1901 in Independence Township, he was a son of the late Daniel and Mary Dickerson Hopkins.

He retired in 1962 as a foreman with the Warren County Road Department. He was a member of the Cataract Hose Company of the Hackettstown Fire Department and the New Jersey Exempt Fireman's Association.

His wife, Elizabeth Hasner Hopkins, died in 1948.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. George Gumm of Carmel, Indiana; two brothers, Clarence and Harold, both of Hackettstown; one sister, Mrs. Florence Miller of Washington, and five grandchildren.

Services were held at the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown, conducted by Rev. George H. Brant of St. James Episcopal Church, Hackettstown.

Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.
