

OBITUARY

Death of Joseph H. Hopkins.

Joseph H. Hopkins, aged forty-two years and seven months, died last Sunday at the State Hospital at Morris Plains. A few months ago he was taken there from his home here, suffering from a complete mental collapse from overwork, following an illness of more than a year. Previous to coming here he resided at the Mansion House, Morxistown. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Ada McCracken. His body was brought to the home of Mrs. Hopkins' mother, Mrs. L. C. McCracken, Monday evening. Funeral services were held in St. Mary's" Church yesterday morning. Rev. Father Gammel officiating. Interment in Union Cemetery.

The Warren Republican, Hackettstown: February 23, 1912

NAME: Hopkins, Joseph H.

DATE OF DEATH: February 18, 1912