

OBITUARY

William Hoppock

William Hoppock, 89, of Hackettstown, died Dec. 30 at St. Clare's Hospital in Denville.

Born July 7, 1912 in Washington Township, Morris County, he was the son of the Bertus and Jennie Beam Hoppock.

He was a farmer in his early life and was employed as a grinder by the former Taylor-Wharton Iron and Steel Co. in High Bridge for 25 years before being employed as a furnace operator by Custom Alloy of Califon, retiring in 1982.

He formerly attended the Califon United Methodist Church.

His wife, Pearl Perrine Hoppock, died in 1996.

Survivors include a son, Larry Hoppock of Lambertville, two daughters, Burdeene Menagh of Mountain Lake and Sharon Judge of Hackettstown; a sister, Mary Hoppock of Thonotosassa, Fla.; 12 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Services were held from the Coughlin Funeral Home in Califon.

Interment was in Fairmount Cemetery in Tewksbury

Township

The Star-Gazette: January 10, 2002

NAME: Hoppock, William

DATE OF DEATH: December 30, 2001