

MARION HOUSEL HACKETTSTOWN

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. today for Mrs. Marion A. Housel, 63, of 311 Franklin St., who was dead on arrival Sunday at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born Oct. 2, 1911 in Jersey City, she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick MacNamara. She had lived in Hackettstown since 1948.

A nurse, she retired from Newton Memorial Hospital in 1974. She had served in the U.S. Army during World War II in the European Theater.

Mrs. Housel was a member of Blue Ridge Post 164 American Legion, Hackettstown, and the American Legion Auxiliary; the N.J. Registered Nurses Association and the N.J. Medical Association Alumni.

She is survived by her husband, Howard C. Housel, of Hackettstown; a son, Charles P., of Hackettstown; a daughter, Mrs. Lynda Marie Stadler, of Hackettstown; a brother, Edward MacNamara, of East Brunswick and a sister, Kathleen Ruff, of Hasbrouck Heights.

Services will be from the Cochran Funeral Home to Our Lady of the Mountain Church, Schooley's Mountain, where a Mass of the Resurrection will be held.

Interment will be in South Easton Cemetery, Easton, Pa.

Star-Gazette,
February 13, 1975

OBITUARY; Marion Housel
Date of Death,
February 9, 1975