HACKETTSTOWN —
Funeral services were held Monday in the Cochran Funeral Home for Mrs. Cornelia T. Hueber, 91, of 405 Grand Ave., who died Thursday in the Hackettstown Community Hospital after a long illness.

Born June 10, 1887, in Forestport, N.Y., she was the daughter of the late George Thorp and Cora Clock. She lived most of her life in Hackettstown. Her husband Alvin died in 1925.

She was a member of the first Presbyterian Church here, a member of the Debora Circle of the church and an instructor of hobby and art classes there. She was a member of the Senior Citizens club, a member of the town's Women's Club, and a charter member of the Hackettstown Fire Department Auxiliary.

She is survived by two sons: Harold of Brookline, Mass., and George of Hackettstown; two daughters, Mrs. Marion Mattison of Hackettstown and Mrs. Ruth Weber of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla; one brother, Milton Thorpe of Hackettstown; and three sisters: Mrs. Irene Mac Cracken, Mrs. Ester Curtis, and Mrs. Helen Rake, all of Hackettstown; seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren also survive.

Burial was in the Hackettstown Union Cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. J.H. Criswell of the First Presbyterian Church.
