

Wilbur L. Hulse

INDEPENDENCE TWP. — Wilbur L. Hulse, Route 46, Great Meadows, died yesterday at Hackettstown Community Hospital. He was 72.

Mr. Hulse was born in Irvington. He lived most of his life in the Great Meadows area.

Before retiring he worked for Centenary College, Hackettstown, as a painter. He was also the former owner of the Hulse Rest Home, Great Meadows.

Mr. Hulse was a member of the Sts. Peter and Paul Roman Catholic Church, Great Meadows, and the Joyce Kilmer Council of the Knights of Columbus, No. 2483, Hackettstown.

Survivors include his wife, Blanche; a son, Wilbur L. Jr., Blairstown; a daughter, Elaine Loguidice, Great Meadows; a brother, John, Newton; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. from the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High St., Hackettstown, to Sts. Peter and Paul Roman Catholic Church, where a Liturgy of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m.

Daily Record,
November 23, 1979.

OBITUARY: Wilbur L. Hulse.
Date of Death,
November 22, 1979.