

OBITUARY

MARVIN L. HUMMER SR.

50, of 117 Brooklyn Road, Stanhope, a native of Hackettstown, died on Monday, March 8, 1971, in the Methodist Hospital, Houston, Tex., where he had been a patient a week. He had a heart condition and had gone there for tests.

Known as "Dusty," Mr. Hummer was born in Hackettstown on November 1, 1920, a son of the late Albert and Nellie Mooney Hummer, and had been a resident of Stanhope 24 years. He was a plumber for Lozier and Mooney, Stanhope, altho he had not worked for the last four years because of ill health. He attended Hackettstown High School.

Survivors are his wife, the former Evelyn L. Lozier, a stepson, Raymond Wyant of Hackettstown; a son, Marvin L. Jr. at home; five daughters, Mrs. Gail Scott of New Orleans, Mrs. Ruth Escott of Shalmott, La., Mrs. Joyce Eger of Budd Lake and the Misses Donna Jean and Collette, both at home; two brothers, Howard A. of Washington and Leroy of Hackettstown; two sisters, Mrs. Mildred Webbe of Hackettstown and Mrs. Margaret Wilson of Sussex, and eight grandchildren.

Services will be held at 1 p. m. Friday from the Pichi Funeral Home, 105 Main Street, Stanhope, with Dr. James A. Richards of the Stanhope United Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be in Stanhope Union Cemetery.

The Star: 11, March, 1971

NAME: Marvin L. Hummer Sr.

DATE OF DEATH: 8 March, 1971