

Melvin L. Hunt

HACKETTSTOWN — Melvin L. Hunt died Oct. 11, 1998, at Hackettstown Hospital.

He was 72.

Born in Stanhope, he was a son of Albert and Mae Woodruff Hunt. He lived in Hackettstown since 1962, moving from Stanhope.

He served on the USS Saugatuck while in the Navy during World War II.

He was a still house operator for the Hercules Co. in Kenil for 38 years, before retiring in 1985.

He was a member of the Stanhope Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Frances Jones Hunt; two sons, Melvin L. Hunt Jr. of Wylie Texas and John R. Hunt of Hackettstown; a brother, Albert Hunt of Dover; a sister, Winefred Weigel of Whippany, and five grandchildren.

Services and burial were private. The Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown was in charge of arrangements.

Melvin L. Hunt

HACKETTSTOWN — Melvin L. Hunt, 72, died Oct. 11 at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born Jan. 1, 1926 in Stanhope, he was the son of the late Albert and Mae Woodruff Hunt. He lived in Hackettstown, since 1962 coming from Stanhope.

He was a Still House Operator for the Hercules Co., Kenil, for 38 years retiring in 1985.

He served on the USS Saugatuck during World War II in the US Navy.

He was a member of the Stanhope Presbyterian Church in Stanhope.

He is survived by his wife, Frances E. Hunt of Hackettstown; two sons, Melvin L. Hunt Jr. of Wylie, Texas, John R. Hunt of Hackettstown; one brother, Albert Hunt of Dover; one sister, Winefred Weigel of Whippany; 5 grandchildren.

Services were private. Arrangements were made by Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown.

Interment was private.

The Express Times: October 13, 1998

The Warren Reporter: October 24, 1998

NAME: Melvin L. Hunt

DATE OF DEATH: October 11, 1998