

Marjorie Jamieson

MARJORIE JAMIESON

Services were held Monday in the home of Marjorie Mary Jamieson, 64, of Blairstown, who died Friday in her home after a long illness.

Santa Ana, Calif.; two daughters, Karen Alice Ipek of Istanbul, Turkey, and Meredith Anne of Greensboro, N.C.; a brother, Benjamin Mettler of Newton; and six grandchildren.

Born in Sandyston Township, she lived in Blairstown since 1941.

Interment was in Laurelwood Cemetery, Stroudsburg. Arrangements were by the Newbaker Funeral Home, Blairstown.

Mrs. Jamieson and her husband, Ronald S. Jamieson, owned and operated the Jamieson Insurance Agencies of Blairstown and Hackettstown, which were started by her brother-in-law, a former four-term Warren County assemblyman, the late James C. Jamieson.

She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown.

Surviving in addition to her husband are two sons, Ronald S. of Hope Township and James M. of

Star - Gazette
September 12, 1985

OBITUARY
Marjorie Jamieson
Date of Death,
September 9, 1985

Cat. No. 13690.16.12