

CARL R. JOHANSONHACKETTSTOWN

Funeral services were held Friday for Carl R. Johanson, 67, of 123 Main St., who died March 9 in the Veterans Hospital, East Orange, after a long illness.

Born Sept. 28, 1908 in Sweden, he lived in Hackettstown for 15 years, moving from Lafayette. He retired five years ago as a maintenance man from Begen Machine and Tool Company.

He was a member of Blue Ridge Post 164, American Legion, Hackettstown, having served as a technician 5th grade with the U.S. Army 21st General Hospital in Northern France during World War II.

He is survived by his widow, the former Leoda Compton, a stepson, Sgt. Charles Cameron, with the U.S. Air Force in Wichita, Kan., a stepdaughter, Mrs. Phyllis Struble of Portland, Pa., and several brothers and sisters in Sweden.

Services were in the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown, conducted by Rev. George H. Brant of St. James Episcopal Church. American Legion services were Friday night.

Cremation was in Rosedale Crematory, Orange.

Star-Gazette,
March 18, 1976

OBITUARY: Carl R. Johanson
Date of Death,
March 9, 1976