

OBITUARY

Near Hackettstown, Warren co., at sunrise on the morning of the 12th inst., of Hasty Consumption, Elizabeth D., wife of Samuel Johnson, in the 49th year of her age. The deceased was for many years a member of the First Baptist Church, Newton, and was a faithful follower of the Lamb. A word of consolation was often heard to fall from her tongue to those who were afflicted. She died in the full prospect of a bright immortality. Her last moments were peaceful and triumphant.

The Warren Journal, Belvidere, New Jersey: June 27, 1848

NAME: Elizabeth D. Johnson

DATE OF DEATH: June 12, 1848