

OBITUARY

Death of Mrs. Nancy Johnson.

Mrs. Nancy Ayers, widow of the late George W. Johnson, and daughter of Archibald and Elizabeth Ayers, died Monday evening after a few weeks illness at her home, corner of Washington and Centre Streets, in her 82d year. The deceased was a noble Christian woman and a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church. She took a great interest in church work, and her home was always open to those who were striving to advance Christ's kingdom. She was the mother of five daughters, three of whom preceded their mother, viz.: Mrs. Eli Osmun, Mrs. Louis F. Post and Miss Augusta. The two surviving daughters are Mrs. W. W. Gibbs, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. William H. Lunger, of Pen Argyl. Funeral services will be held at her late residence this (Friday) afternoon at 1:45 o'clock. Interment in the family plot in Union Cemetery.

The Warren Republican: August 8, 1902

NAME: Johnson, Nancy (nee Ayers)

DATE OF DEATH: August 4, 1902