

RICHARD F. JOHNSON
MANSFIELD TWP. —

Funeral services were held Saturday for Richard F. Johnson, 56, of Route 57, who died Nov. 16 at Morristown Memorial Hospital after a long illness.

Born Jan. 21, 1921 in Hackettstown, he was a son of the late Raymond C. Johnson and Alice Riedinger Johnson of Hackettstown.

He was owner and operator of Johnson's Beverage Store, Route 57, Mansfield.

A U.S. Army veteran of World War II, he served with the Sixth Armoured Division. He was a member of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, Joyce Kilmer Council 2483, Knights of Columbus, Blue Ridge Post 164, American Legion, the Sixth Armoured Division Association of Louisville, Ky., and the Central Jersey Package Store Association.

Besides his mother, he is survived by his wife, the former Julia Kuzmack; two daughters, Jacqueline of Allentown, Pa., and Cynthia at home; a brother, Robert of Hackettstown; a sister, Mrs. Mayann Williamson of Damascus, Md.

Services were from the Cochran Funeral Home to St. Mary's where a Mass was offered by the Rev. Stephen A. Bielen.

Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
November 24, 1977.

Obituary;
Richard F. Johnson.
Date of Death, November 16, 1977.