

Evelyn E. Johnson

HACKETTSTOWN — Evelyn E. Johnson, 95, formerly of Independence Township, died Thursday, July 3, 2003, in Heath Village, where she had been residing for the past few years.

Born on May 27, 1908, she was the only child of the late John and Ella Barrett Engemann of Great Meadows.

Her husband, the late Stewart S. Sr. predeceased her in 1978.

Evelyn retired on June 30, 1973, after 41 years in education as both a teacher and an administrator. She taught at Central School, where she was also assistant principal, Blairstown and Green Township, and had served as principal at Delaware School in Knowlton Township, and the Consolidated School in Greendell.

She attended Central School of Great Meadows, Hackettstown High School, College of St. Elizabeth, Convent Station, where she received her A.B. in history and French, and Columbia University Teachers College, where she received her M.A. in elementary education.

She was a member of the Central Teachers Association, Warren County Education Association, New Jersey Education Association, New Jersey Schoolwomen's Club, New Jersey Archeological Society, Sussex County Historical Society and the Associated Women of the Farm Bureau, Warren County. She was also an honorary member of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society and vice-president of the Hope Historical Society. More recently, she was an active member of the Millbrook Village Historical Society and the Independence Seniors Organization, and had served as treasurer of both. She also served on the Advisory Board to the Warren County Office on Aging.

There are no immediate survivors, but she will be remembered by her friends.

Her son, Stewart S. Jr., predeceased her in 1987.

Services and arrangements were by the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Burial was at Pequest Union Cemetery in Great Meadows.

Those planning an expression of sympathy may consider donations to the Independence Township Fire Company, Regina Lane, Great Meadows, or to the Independence Township Rescue Squad, Route 46, Great Meadows.

Stewart S. Johnson Jr.

Memorial services will be held Feb. 25 at 11 a.m. at Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows, for Stewart S. Johnson Jr., 37, who died Jan. 11.

He was born in Morristown and lived in Independence Township most of his life.

He was self-employed as a landscaper, and was a member of the National Rifle Association.

Surviving is his mother, Evelyn Engemann Johnson, ^{wife}

The Cochran Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
