

OBITUARY

Donald Jordan

HACKETTSTOWN — Donald Jordan, 78, died Tuesday, April 13, 2004 at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born May 3, 1925 in Pittstown, PA, he was the son of the late Henry Richard and Mary Loretta (Kritzer) Jordan.

He lived in Hackettstown for 43 years coming from Wharton.

Mr. Jordan was a postal/letter carrier for 21 years with the U.S. Postal Service, Hackettstown, retiring in 1985. Previously he was employed by Howmet Corp., Wharton, for nine years.

He served in the Navy aboard the USS San Diego from 1943-1946 during WWII.

Mr. Jordan was a life member of the following organizations: Hackettstown Moose Lodge #816; American Legion Post #164; Disabled Veterans Chapter #78; National Association of Letter Carriers; also a member of the AARP.

He is survived by his wife, Lily (Allen) Jordan of Hackettstown; two sons, Kenneth Allen of Hackettstown and Ronald Jordan of Lewes, DEL.; a daughter, Wendy Rockle of Harbeson, DEL.; two sisters, Bertha Sain of Totowana, NY and Jeanette Coleman of Philadelphia, PA; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral service was held at Cochran Funeral Home, Inc. in Hackettstown. Interment was in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, 669 Littleton Road, Parsippany, NJ 07054-4834.

The Warren Reporter: April 30, 2004

NAME: Donald Jordan

DATE OF DEATH: April 13, 2004