

William A. Jordan, worked at Bell Labs

HACKETTSTOWN — William A. Jordan, 70, of Hackettstown, died Friday, June 10, in Hackettstown Community Hospital.

He was a control board operator at AT&T Bell Labs in Short Hills before retiring.

Born in Charlotte, N.C., he was a son of the late William A. and Ella Jackson Jordon Sr.

He served in the Army during the Korean War.

Survivors include his wife, Bessie of Port Murray; a daughter, Gwendolyn A. Memminger of Syracuse, N.Y.; a brother, John T. of Paterson; three sisters, Dorothy Fason of St. Albans, N.Y., Lois McCutchen of East Orange and Betty J. Jordan-Mullin in South Carolina; and four grandchildren.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday in DeVoe Funeral Service, 136 W. Washington St., Washington. Call 10 a.m. Wednesday to time of services in the funeral home.

Burial will be in Graceland Memorial Park, East Orange.

The family requests memorials to Mansfield Emergency Squad, Port Murray, N.J. 07865.

---

Express-Times: June 14, 1994

NAME: William A. Jordan

DATE OF DEATH: June 10, 1994